Did you know...

- Most of the women who come to the Shelter for Help in Emergency are mothers fleeing violent homes with their children.
- In Virginia, many families who requested shelter from domestic violence programs last year had to be turned away.
- 82% of Americans say that they would do something to help reduce domestic violence if they knew what to do.
- Each year the Shelter for Help in Emergency provides more than 5,000 nights of safe shelter for over 200 victims of domestic violence and their children from the central Virginia area.
- Your donation of $45 will help provide one night of shelter for a woman in crisis. If you choose, you may donate additional nights of shelter at $45 each.
